WILDCAT

1957

FOREWORD

With great pleasure and a feeling of achievement on the part of the Senior Class of 1957, we present this annual, hoping that in the future we will remember the many happy experiences of our high school days. We hope our triumphs and defeats, our happiness and sorrow, our everlasting friendships, and numerous activities will never be forgotten as we look through these pages. We shall always remember the beginning of the football, the basketball, and the baseball seasons; the familiar sounds of the cheerleaders and the band; our different clubs, initiations and contests; our chapel assemblies; the ordering of our rings and invitations; the Washington trip; the Junior-Senior Banquet; the senior play; the Baccalaureate Sermon, and our graduation.

As we have planned and worked through the years portrayed in this annual, we have designed the blueprint of our future.

THEY LEAD US...

For their guidance in our school activities and for their help in causing us to envision a future which continues to progress from one level to another, we thank the faculty. They help to make our years in high school happy with their patience and understanding of our problems. In them we find wise counselors and sincere friends. They work with untiring effort and enthusiasm to inspire us to strive for high ideals. They live by a very busy schedule filled with varied responsibilities. We shall not forget the loyalty and devotion exemplified by the faculty.

OUR PRINCIPAL

Mr. Neill . . . a personal interest in each student . . . always a friendly greeting . . . an eye for improvement . . . the willingness to work until each project is completed. We appreciate such leadership.

MOST POPULAR

Grace Ballard David Boone

Grace and David, voted most popular among the senior class, are known and loved by the seniors, who elected them. Both support school organizations and sports; neither fails to have a greeting for, or to be greeted by friends. They will be remembered as best friends by many long after the pages of this yearbook are well-worn.

BEST LOOKING

Sharon Ponder Jerry Brown

"Cheerfulness and content are great beautifiers and are famous preservers of youthful looks.". . . Charles Dickens.

Cheerfulness, content, good looks--these traits are responsible for the selection of Sharon and Jerry as the best-looking couple of the Senior Class. Their character and humor, linked with their physical attractiveness, give them this quality which cannot be denied.

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED

Jean Robinson Albert Blackwell

We all think Jean and Albert will succeed. Why? Because they have already stamped the blueprint of their future with the characteristics of success: wise choice of subjects, proper use of time, resourcefulness, self-discipline, eagerness to know the truth, and an awareness of the importance of developing their own powers.

FRIENDLIEST

Joyce Jamerson Donald Revis

Joyce's friendly smile and Donald's pleasing personality make school life pleasant for everyone. With their cheerful "hellos" and helpful hands, they make each new student feel at home. Not only their smiles and personalities gave them the votes of the senior class, but also their true character traits--originality and dependability.

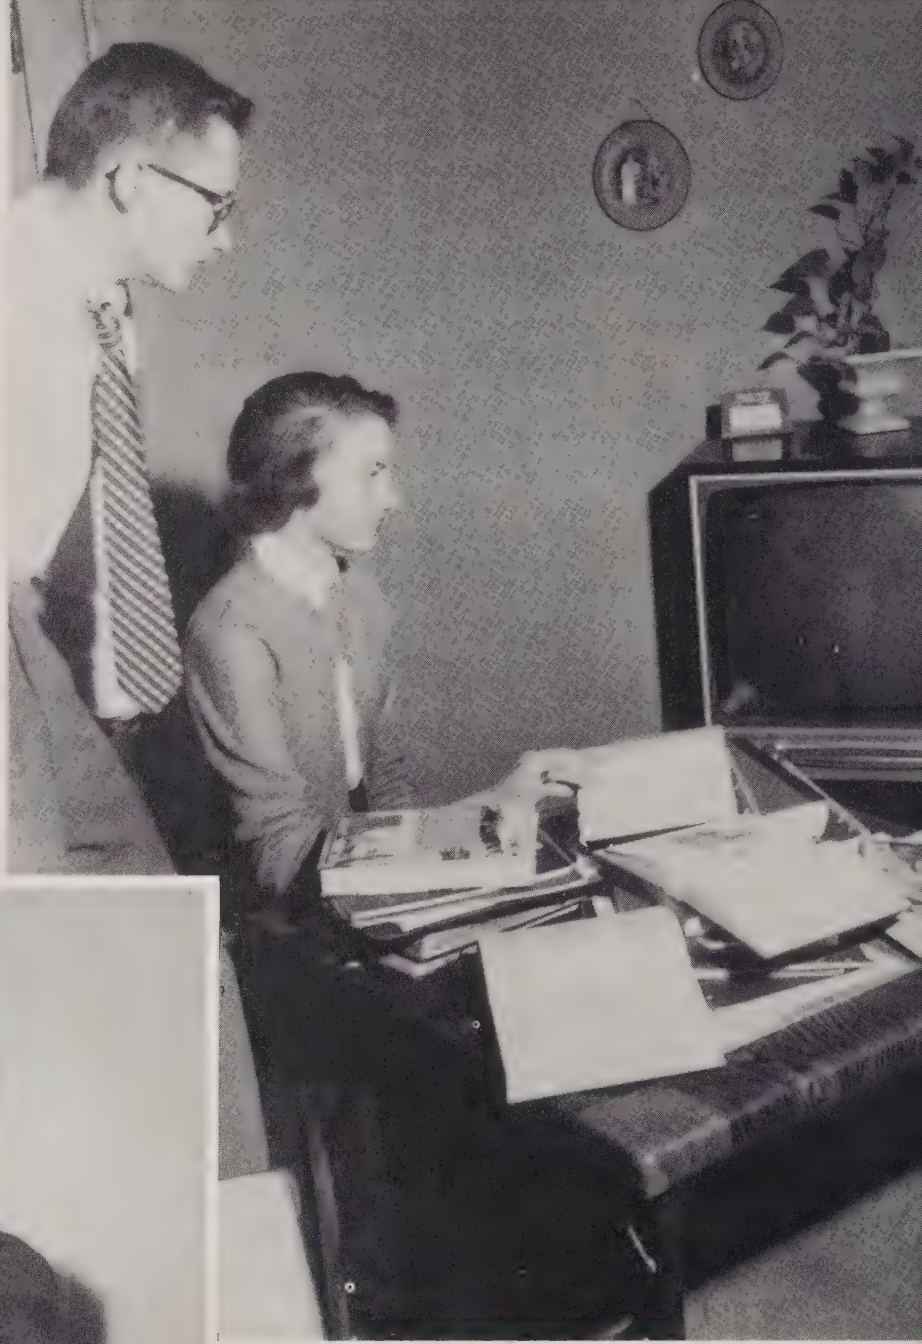
MOST STUDIOUS

Shirley Chandler Dick Vance

Anytime you see Shirley and Dick they are spending their time wisely. They never give up work on a problem until they have tried every possible solution. The work they must do is not a burden but a pleasure. "A genius is one per-dent inspiration and ninety-nine per-cent perspiration"; that's Shirley and Dick.



MOST TALENTED

Betty Mays Donald Lambert

Any school is enriched by its talented students. The seniors are proud of Betty and sincerely appreciate her willingness to serve as accompanist for various musical programs, and her efficient service in the office and in almost every phase of school life. We are proud of Donald for his contributions to the choral and band clinics, and for his leadership in building and strengthening the band.

BEST SPORT

Nina Fisher Clifford Metcalf

Who is a "good sport"? Is it the person with all the beauty and lovliness in the world; the one who makes the highest grades and achieves the most wealth; or is it the one who is always willing to help carry the load, brighten the path, and spread sunshine in the way of all who pass by? Through the years Nina and Clifford have proved that they deserve the title of "Best Sport."

MOST ATHLETIC

Marian Reese Milam Wall

There was little hesitation when the senior voting began for the most athletic couple. Foremost in everyone's mind were these two. Marian has lettered four years in basketball and has served each year as a cheerleader. Milam has lettered in football, basketball and baseball since his freshman year. He made a wonderful showing as fullback on the Senior All-Star team, a position to which he was elected by W.N.C. coaches.

MR. AND MISS MARS HILL HIGH

Joyce Merrill Bobby Ramsey

To qualify for the title of Mr. or Miss Mars Hill, one must be an ideal boy or an ideal girl, one whom every student might well use as a model.

Joyce and Bobby are always friendly, neatly dressed, and well-poised. They give their support to all clubs, sports and class projects. They also use their time wisely and efficiently.

BEST ALL AROUND

Janette Robinson James Radford

The wheels of our school turn more smoothly when students like Janette and James give everyone a cheerful greeting, come to class with lessons prepared, work efficiently with various clubs, and add to all sports activity.

CLASS HISTORY

We, the Seniors of 1957, have become aware of the fact that we shall soon depart from Mars Hill High School never to return as students again. We know that through the years we shall reminisce about our studies and activities for the past four years.

We shall remember entering high school in August, 1953, as a group of "eager beavers." Under the leadership of our homeroom teachers, Miss Marie Haynes, Mr. Rassie Howell, and Mr. H. C. Edwards, we were soon going to our respective places without much confusion. Milam Wall, President; and Jerry Brown, Vice-President, were our class leaders.

In August, 1954, we returned as Sophomores. We found that Mrs. Eileen Wood had been added to the staff of teachers. Mrs. Wood, Miss Marietta Smith, and Mrs. Evelyn English were our homeroom teachers. The second year Home Economics Class, who are now Seniors, organized the Future Homemakers of America Club with Gail Gosnell as President. Lucile Ponder and Mary Etta Coffey were awarded the home economics medals. Allison Cohn and Jean Robinson joined our class that year. We were very happy to have them join our family. Sammy Buckner, President, and Clifford Metcalf, Vice-President, were our student leaders for the year.

During our Junior year, we had several events in which to participate. Miss Elizabeth McConnell and Mrs. Hazel Suttles joined the staff that year. Sharon Ponder, a former elementary classmate, re-joined us that year. Mrs. Eileen Wood and Mr. J. D. Wallin were our sponsors. The excitement of the Junior-Senior Banquet rang in the air as we began working on a project to help pay the expenses. When the night finally arrived on April 12, 7:00 P.M., everyone was thrilled to see the Coyte Bridges Dining Hall beautifully decorated in lavender and old lace. Mrs. Wood was the sponsor for this occasion. After the delicious dinner, Dr. Robert Seymour, pastor of the Mars Hill Baptist Church, gave an inspiring speech. We selected our class rings, of which we are very proud, during our Junior year. Joyce Jamerson won the World Peace Contest and a trip to the United Nations. Lola West, Janette Robinson, Jerry Brown, and Donald Lambert represented our school in the annual choral clinic at Mars Hill College. Albert Blackwell and Donald Lambert entered the band clinic at Western Carolina College. The Future Teachers of America Club, with Mrs. Evelyn English as sponsor, was organized that year. In the spring and fall we had some picnics, which everyone enjoyed. Lucile Ponder won a medal in the 4-H Club. In the F.F.A. State Federation, D. L. Whitt, Bruce Robinson, Donald Revis, Clifford Metcalf, and Sammy Buckner won a gold cup.

Albert Blackwell was a District Winner in the National Piano-Playing Auditions of the National Guild of Piano Teachers. Marian Reese won a medal in the 4-H Club for home decoration.

During the summer at the State F.F.A. Convention held in Raleigh, Clifford Metcalf and Sammy Buckner won the State Farmer Degree.

In August, 1956, we welcomed to the faculty Mr. Ralph E. Neill, the new principal, Mrs. Dixie Jenkins, and Mr. John Lackey. Milam Wall, President, and Janette Robinson, Vice-President, were selected as the leaders for the year.

We have had many memorable days thus far in our senior year, but probably the most exciting event was seeing our football team win the Homecoming Game, at which Betty Yelton was crowned football queen. Marian Reese was her senior attendant. When the season ended, Milam Wall, Jerry Brown, and David Boone were selected for the Western Carolina All-Star team.

Now, as we complete our high school course with Mrs. Dixie Jenkins and Mrs. Ethel Moyers as our sponsors, we still have the Washington trip, the senior play, and the Junior-Senior Banquet before our graduating exercises in May. These events will no doubt be remembered for many years.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the seniors, do will to our beloved principal, Mr. Ralph E. Neill, our appreciation and gratitude for the many things he has done for us during our senior year at Mars Hill High.

To our faculty, who have patiently taught us during the years we have attended Mars Hill High, we will our hearty thanks for the many hours they have labored with us.

To the juniors we leave our honored places as seniors in the hope that they will enjoy the class work and the activities as much as we have.

To the sophomores and freshmen we do will our love for Mars Hill High and hope they will acquire knowledge and wisdom during their years here.

I, Betty Jean Mays, leave my piano to Carolyn Tugman.

I, Gail Gosnell, leave my love for service men to Hilda Briggs.

I, Laura Etta Briggs, will my nickname of "Buggs" to anyone who doesn't mind being called such a name.

We, Milam Wall and Bobby Ramsey, will to some lucky juniors, our football uniforms.

I, Joyce Jamerson, will my sweet ways to Betty Lou Bradley.

I, Albert Blackwell, will David Bradley a pack of lifesavers to eat in French Class.

I, Jean Robinson, leave my positions as Editor-in-Chief of the school paper and typist for the annual, to anyone who thinks he can fill them.

I, Janette Robinson, leave my position on the annual staff to some title-loving junior.

I, Jerry Brown, leave my purple practice pants and red shirt to "Herm."

We, Betty Yelton and Patsy Ramsey, leave our love for underclassmen to Joan Dycus.

I, Shirley Allen, leave my giggles to Janie Ferguson.

I, Tarshel Peek, leave my smile to R. C. Metcalf.

I, Dick Vance, leave my laugh to anyone who doesn't mind being called "Scrooge."

We, Tony Ponder and Horace Rice, leave our school buses to two people who do not mind getting up early every morning.

We, "the witty two," Shirley Yelton and David Boone, will our desks in Mrs. Suttles' English class to anyone who can sit in the same desk for two consecutive years.

I, Eileen Ballard, will my prettiness to Patricia Robinson.

I, Kay Wilds, will my ability to blush at the slightest bit of embarrassment to Andrea Cody.

We, Lucile Ponder and Donald Revis, hereby will our artistic ability to anyone who likes to draw.

I, Joyce Merrill, leave my love for diamonds to Jean Gosnell.

We, Sharon Ponder and Lola Belle West, will our cheerleading uniforms, crepe paper, and scotch tape to any girls who will enjoy climbing goal posts, in hopes they will have as much fun as we have had.

I, Donald Lambert, will my trumpet to anyone who will practice.

I, Hall Bruce, leave my wise cracks to Howell Smith.

I, Vava Hensley, leave my shortness to Geraldine Doan.

I, Pansy Mae Robinson, leave my pleasing personality to Edna Cole.

We, Carol Dean and Janette Edwards, will to Vera Waldrup our economics book in hopes that she can keep up with Mr. Wallin.

I, Shirley Chandler, leave my good grades to anyone who will work for them.

I, Shirley Radford, leave my place in study hall to anyone who can keep his mouth shut for an hour.

I, L. B. Buckner, leave my quiet ways to Luther Rice.

I, J. D. Shook, will my big mouth to Martin Fox in hopes that he will become a great Mars Hill scholar.

I, Sammy Buckner, leave my crew cut to Donnie Caldwell.

I, Mary Etta Coffey, leave my typewriter to Frances McMahan.

I, Grace Ballard, leave all my college boys to Virginia Randolph.

We, Marian Reece and Nina Fisher, leave to two lucky girls our basketball uniforms.

I, James Radford, leave to David Woody my height.

I, Harold Wilds, will to Mrs. Wood my French book so she can enjoy the cartoons I drew when I wasn't paying attention in class.

I, Clifford Metcalf, will my courtesy to Dedrick Cody.

I, Cleva Hensley, leave my chemistry book to anyone that can tell the difference between hydrogen and oxygen.

We, Mary Ruth Ray and Mary Dean Rice, leave to two people our seats in Mrs. Moyers' English class.

I, D. L. Whitt, leave my curly hair to anyone who wants it.

We, Zade Ponder and Harold Bailey, leave our ability to flirt to Harold Greene and John Burry.

I, Marie Shook, leave my freckles to Janette Morgan.

I, Alvin Norton, leave my dark complexion to Vernon Davis.

I, Helen Wyatt, leave my blonde hair to Trelby English.

We, Jack Edwards and Burlin Norton, will our quietness to anyone who is fortunate enough to be quiet.

I, Ed Carter, leave my sincerity to Glen Burrell.

I, Bruce Robinson, leave my guitar to anyone who wishes to learn instrumental music.

I, Joe Paul Anderson, leave my love for ninth grade girls to Harold Woody.

In witness wherof, I have hereunto set my hand and fixed the great seal of the class of 1957.

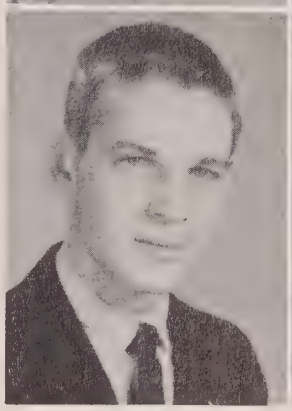
Student Council . . . Officers and home-room representatives elected by the students because of their high standards of conduct and scholarship . . . dedicated to working constructively with the students for . . . a better school. Students suggest, discuss, and cooperate--sum total, a better school.



The National Beta Club is a non-secret, leadership, service organization for high school students. The organization promotes ideals of honesty, justice, service, cooperation, responsibility, industriousness, humility and charity. Individual integrity and self-dependence are stressed constantly in Beta activities. Participation in Beta Club work tends to promote efficient, honest, and fearless leadership in students.

Real honest-to-goodness labor goes into getting an annual ready for the press. The staff has spent long hours planning and organizing material to show that we have been blueprinting our future through our studies, various clubs and athletics, and even our loafing. Now as we give the annual to you, the students, we hope you will treasure it as an album of memories.

"Have you heard the latest??" This is what we hear as we associate with our classmates. What could be more fitting than to have a paper all our own, with every item of interest about Mars Hill High? Some of the most qualified and intelligent students find themselves with the job of writing the latest news about who's-who and what's-what.

OUR DIRECTOR

New instruments, new uniforms, a new program, new spirit---all have sprung from Mr. Lackey's enthusiasm and constant work with the band. We sincerely say, "Thank you!"

HIGH BAND

The band has certainly reached a new high this year in spirit and performance. Mr. John Lackey has patiently worked with the new and the experienced members, and successfully too, for it takes many hours of hard work to produce the finished half-time shows and martial music of the football season. The concert performances have also been events well worth remembering.

Increased in size to some forty players and majorettes, the band has earned new uniforms and new equipment. With a junior band of 30 members, practicing daily, the band promises to continue to grow and improve.

The part the band plays in adding to school spirit and improving the records of the teams cannot be determined. But it is great. The training received in the band is invaluable to those who participate.

Under the direction of Mr. H. C. Edwards, the Glee Club provides fun and fellowship, mingled with music. Behind its performances, there is a lot of hard work. Rehearsals are generally a relief from the often brain-taxing daily routines of school life.

BAND CLINIC REPRESENTATIVES

From the band, six members attended the annual Western Carolina College Band Clinic. They participated in two days of fun and intensive practice, and performed in public concert with students from many Western North Carolina bands.

CHORAL CLINIC REPRESENTATIVES

The students who represented the school at the Mars Hill College Choral Clinic were carefully selected. They rehearsed strenuously, sang music, thought music, and thoroughly enjoyed working with new friends from other Western North Carolina high schools.

MARSHALS

Every individual should set a high goal and endeavor to reach it. High ideals stimulate students to strive to make the best of life. Through hard work and with assistance from their parents and teachers, these students were able to attain top rank in their class and were chosen Junior Marshals.

LIBRARY CLUB

The girls who work in the library are always willing to help in any way they can. They help the librarian in her work, help the students find books and material for reports, and check books. To be a member of the library club, one must work in the library at least one period a day.

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization of, for, and managed by farm boys studying vocational agriculture in rural high schools. There are 465 chapters in North Carolina with 23,000 members. During the past five years the Mars Hill Chapter has won 26 out of 33 federal contests. It has had one American Farmer and 22 State Farmers from among its members. Mr. McIntyre, the advisor, was awarded an honorary American Farmer degree this year.

The primary aim of the Future Homemakers of America is to develop skill in homemaking. The members study the latest information on cooking, sewing, child care, first aid, entertainment, and other phases of home management. They take great pride in their banquets and fashion shows. They know that full happiness is possible only through acceptance of responsibility.

Rural boys and girls are taught the latest practices in homemaking and agriculture, and are given opportunities for co-operation and leadership through the 4-H Club. Each member completes a certain project during the year. Meetings are held once a month in order to discuss and improve various projects, such as those in home and school life, and community and church activities. The members of this organization wish to attain lasting satisfaction by rendering service to the home and the community.

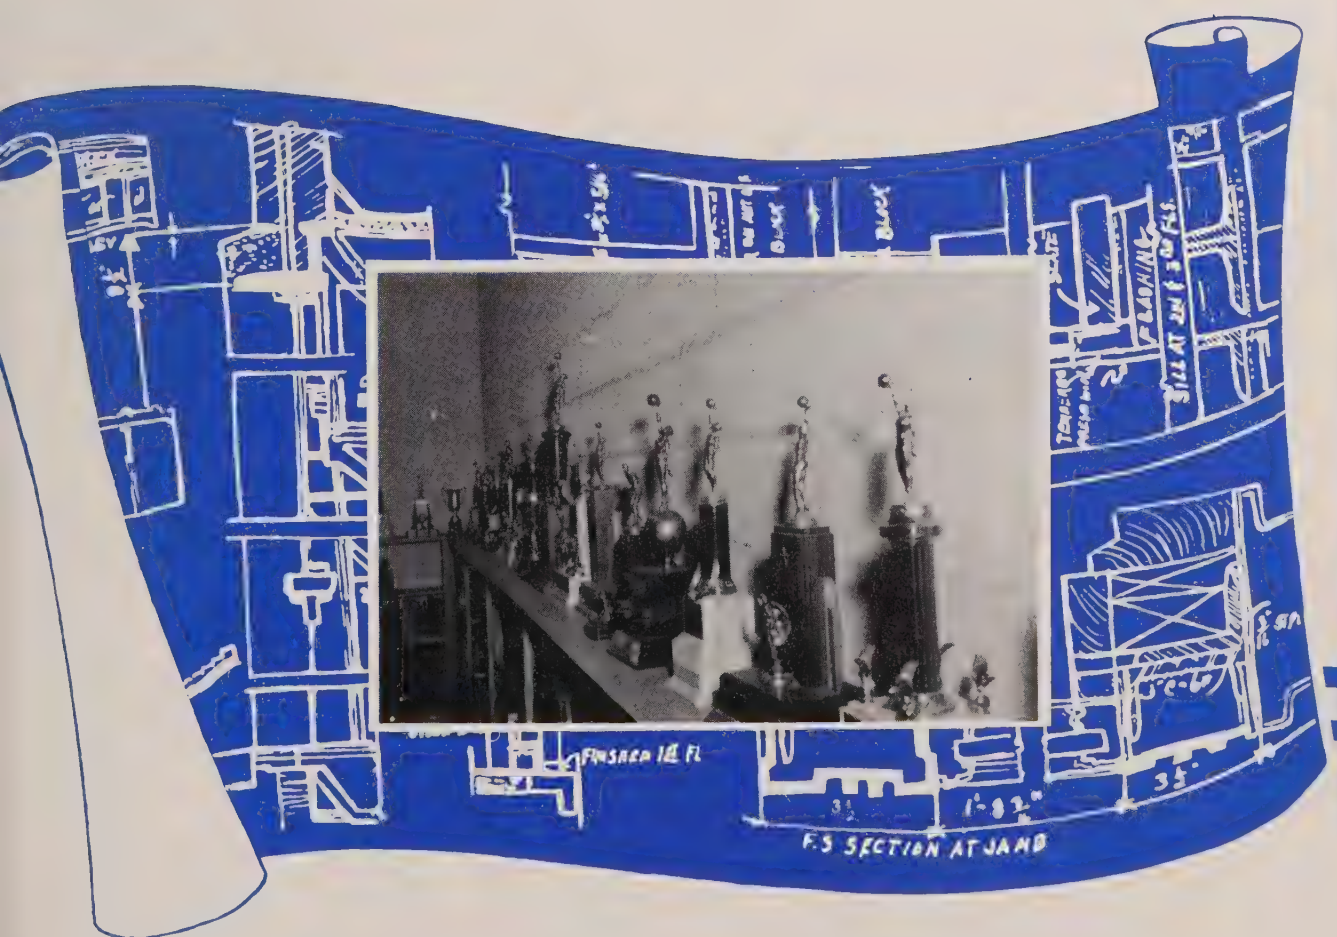
ATHLETICS



'57

The Mars Hill football team, "The Wildcats," is proud of its record for the year. The team has been very successful with 8 wins against 2 losses under the guidance of Coaches Peek and Bennett. With the running and ball handling of the backfield, coupled with the blocking and pass receiving of the line, Mars Hill held third place at the end of the season in the Skyline A Conference.

With 7 wins tucked safely under their belts, the Wildcats climaxed the season by providing thrills to the capacity crowd and winning the homecoming game.

After the season David Boone, Jerry Brown, and Milam Wall traveled to Asheville to play in the Western Carolina Senior Bowl game, an honor well-deserved.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The Mars Hill girls are for the second consecutive year the Madison County basketball champions. With all of the four high school classes placing players among the starting sextette, the girls chalked up an over-all record of 17 wins, 6 defeats. They turned in terrific performances from the first, climaxing the season with victory in the hard-fought county tournament.

The girls lived up to the expectations of M.H.H.S. and surprised the rest of the county by going through the tournament undefeated, winning two victories from the heavily-favored Walnut team. They carried off the Championship Trophy and a high percentage of individual honors as well. Marian Reese, Jo Whitt, Joy Lou Hensley, and Barbara Metcalf were named to the All-Tourney team. Jo was also named the outstanding girl player of the 1957 event. Proud? You bet.

CHEERLEADERS

To the cheerleaders goes credit for the decorations and signs, for the streamers and the Wildcat, so carefully painted only to be torn to shreds by thirty-five football players rushing through it. As morale-builders the cheerleaders are indispensable. Never leaving the sidelines vacant, they voice phrases of encouragement to the players in no half-way manner. To the players? Yes, but to the coaches, too, who, although they stand on the sidelines, are just as certainly "playing" as any end or guard. These cheerleaders are a strange group. One can often see tears in their eyes, win or lose, and feel their breathless excitement as the ball moves toward the goal line--and victory. Surely no part of high school life will be remembered longer by the Class of 1957 than the high kicks and yells of these thirteen.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The 1957 boys' team was led by veterans of the hardwood to a total record of 22-4. Playing this year were four of last year's starters. Four seniors were among the first five. After getting the feel of the ball, the team roared through a 15-straight winning streak to end the regular season with 17 wins and only 3 losses.

The Wildcats rolled through the county tournament, easily winning the Championship Trophy. Dick Vance, Milam Wall, and Howell Smith were picked for the boys' All-Tourney team. From their position of county champions the boys aimed at the District Class A crown. They gained a berth in the event by defeating Andrews 68-40 in a preliminary play-off game.

In the tourney, Cherokee bowed to the Wildcats in the most exciting game of the tournament. The game was tied or the lead changed hands 27 times and a three-minute overtime was played before Mars Hill won, 58-54. The boys were defeated in the semi-finals by the powerful Edneyville club, which, incidentally, went on to win the tournament. Dick was named to the District All-Star team. Coaches, players, and the school look back on the season as one of the best ever.

In baseball the 1955-56 Mars Hill "Wildcats" lived up to all expectations by performing in traditional Mars Hill style. Coaches Peek and Bennett watched the squad improve as the season progressed. The returning players, keeping spirits high and eagerly urging on the newer players, showed a remarkable skill in the game.

With the effective pitching of two seniors, Charles Boone and Charles Ramsey, and the hitting ability of the whole team, the "Wildcats" came out with third place in the conference. Now eager faces are looking forward to the coming year.

The members of the cafeteria staff endeavor to provide well-balanced meals each day for the elementary and high school students. They plan and prepare the meals, set the tables, keep the lunchroom neat and tidy, and make the lunchroom reports. The members of the cafeteria staff are sincerely appreciated by every student.

CUSTODIANS

Our custodians are always on the job sweeping, keeping the buildings warm, washing the windows, and making repairs. They are always willing and eager to render any extra services asked of them. Their main objective is to keep the school buildings clean, safe, and comfortable, and the school grounds beautiful.

The girls who are members of the office staff work in Mr. Neill's office one period each day. They are kept very busy answering the telephone, typing, looking up records, running errands, and providing information. Even though they are very busy, they receive a great deal of pleasure and enjoyment from their work, and consider it an honor to be on the office staff.

BUS DRIVERS

All school bus drivers in the state of North Carolina are required to attend a special training course consisting of 12 hours of classroom work and 6 hours of bus driving. During this course boys study law, judging distance, time reaction, and general safety on the buses. Because of this training and the conscientiousness of our bus drivers, the students know they are reliable and safe.
